 June Club Meeting will be on 6-11-23 due to Father's Day at Pizza Inn located at 6900 26 Blvd D, Richland Hills, Tx

From The Pres's Desk

Kirk Maisenbacher

Hey Y'all,

First, I want to thank David Sloane for hosting the May picnic/meeting. It was a successful meet with lots of people attending. The weather was overcast and just a slight breeze made for a great day.

For June, we have a few events on the calendar, including a TMCCC race at Ardmore (that has been canceled due to potential rain) and the cruise to the Malt Shop out in Weatherford (weather depending) OR the Burger Box in Kennedale. More info to follow. We really want to do more cruises, so be sure to let us know if you have any ideas.

Our club meeting will be at Pizza Inn, but it will be June 11th due to our regular meeting day being on Father's Day this year.

See Frank's Activity page for more event details.

Also, the club will be offering a new embroidered, insulated bomber jacket, which we have not done in 10 years. There will be a couple of demo jackets at the next few club meetings for people to try on to gauge their size.

Kirk

Thank you David Sloane for inviting us to your place for the picnic and the meeting.

From our Activities Director:

Frank Smith

After numerous attempts since last September, we were finally successful in having a picnic and meeting at the home of David Sloane. And let me say, it was a good one. David, thank you from all of us for hosting. There were 33 members and quests enjoying the food, the fellowship, and browsing around the classics. Thanks to Kurt and Rennie for doing the cooking. We were finally able to try out our refurbished cook trailer. Thanks to all that brought sides and desserts, yum.

Here's what's for June:

6/3 Board meeting for Rudy's

6/4 TMCCC race at Ardmore (canceled due to rain in the forecast)

6/11 General meeting at Pizza Inn

6/17 If the weather is good, meet at 4pm at the Lowe's parking lot at Bryant Irving and I20 for a cruise to the Malt Shop in Weatherford. If the weather is not suitable for eating outside, please join us at the Burger Box in Kennedale at 4pm.

Cowtown Mopar Performance Team Club Meeting on 05/21/2023

Present: 36 Members + Guests

Call to Order 2:02pm, held at David Sloane's house

1. Kirk Maisenbacher opened and thanked David Sloane for hosting a picnic at his house, then had guests introduce themselves. He spoke about the Spring Car Show that was held on 4-8-2023 and said it was a success. There was a lot of foot traffic and Carter Blood Care was happy with the turnout and will continue coming back.
2. Kurt Schuster then spoke about online payments. He has investigated the costs associated with online payments (service fess and point of sale devices) and the club would have to eat some of the cost. Kurt moved to accept online payments for a year, and none opposed. Members agreed to try it for a year and see if it was worth the extra money. Tom Kelly asked about going through other banks - if it would be cheaper, Kurt said Wells Fargo was the best choice as that is who the Club banks through and there would be no third party. He will get a link posted on the webpage for the membership dues and a point-of-sale device for entry fees at shows and t-shirts.
3. The new Cowtown Mopar Pit Shirts were distributed. Kirk spoke about club jackets and asked if members would be interested. They will be $38 each + $30 for the embroidery. He showed different colors and most people wanted Mopar Blue. He will pre-order different sizes so people can try them on and see what size they want. Then Kirk will start a threat and you can order through him.
4. Frank Smith spoke about upcoming activities, including the Cruise-In to either the Malt Shoppe or Burger Box on 6-17-23, the rescheduling of the Cruise to The Smokestack in Thurber on 7-1-23, the Chili Cook-Off on 10-15-23, The Toy Drive on 11-4-23 and the Christmas Party at Hacienda Ranch on 12-3-23. he also brought up the idea of scheduling a Cruise-In/Cook Out for the Ronald McDonald House for the Kids.
