Fall is (almost) here. If you haven't broke out the old cars already, it's about that time. We've had the Dart on the road quite a bit these last few weeks... even decided to put the stereo back in.

This month we will have our annual Chili cookoff and club meeting. Selena and I will be hosting at our home in Hurst. Bring your favorite chili recipe or dessert/side. The club will also be grilling burgers and hot dogs for those that aren't into chili.

1400 Cimarron Trail, Hurst, Tx 76053

Start gathering at 2pm.

As always, bring your cars....we have plenty of back yard to park in.

Hello Racers!

We have had a couple of good race days. We have two races left. This coming Saturday 10/11, it is an evening race at Little River Raceway. Gates open at 3pm. 1st round is 4 points. Need all the racers we can! The last race is at XRP on Sunday Oct 26th.

Only a couple more races to go for the year.

You can buy tickets for the TMCCC banquet now either online or at one of the remaining races.

We had a good day on Sept 14th at XRP. We had 21 cars and got 68 points!

Whereas GM had 25 cars and earned 54 points.

Red River had 35 cars and earned 78 points.

This last race on Oct 5th, we had 19 cars break the beams and tied GM club at 37 points.

Cookie has been gracious enough to be bringing doughnuts and Kolaches to the races. Thank you Cookie!

We have been blessed to have Todd and Andrea Ruffins join our team. They are from Hugo, OK and are friends with Mike Moriarty. They generally run the Paris track, but being it has been shut down this summer, they raced the IHRA bracket series at XRP. Andrea just recently won the Division 4 Sportsman class championship and will be representing XRP at the final in Alabama!

We also have another new team member, Kevin Steelman. Lives out in Jacksonville, TX and drives a '65 Yellow Belvedere. He runnered up against Tim Baker at XRP at this last race.

Anyways, it's always a good day when you're racing!

Keep it right side up!

Greg
